Terms and Conditions

1. Background and context

The Directorate of Publications Division (DPD), a media unit of the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Govt of India, is one of the leading publishing houses in the country and the largest in the public sector. It aims at publishing quality titles on a wide variety of subjects including arts, literature, culture, science, environment, India’s national heritage as also children’s literature.

Publications Division has been directed to digitally archive its publications and publish a series of E Books under a Scheme of Creation of Digital Archives. These books are bound by a very tight time schedule and deadlines, and require highly professional editorial and IT skills for which it is proposed to engage dedicated and skilled Editors.

For this purpose, DPD is looking for professionals having editorial skills in Hindi or English. A good knowledge of IT usage, experience in digitization of publications, creation of digital and e books and any other experience in e-publishing is also essential.

2. Duties of Editors on contract basis may include the following:

- Understanding and assimilation of the provided content.
- Coordinating for selection of books/publications to be archived and converted into E Books.
- Working closely with the Editorial team and technical team to scrutinize the content of the digital book and ensure that it is a faithful replica of the print book.
- Working closely with a hired private agency to technically scrutinize the digital book/publication.
- Dealing with authors/writers, picture researchers, photographers, stylists and illustrators
- Work closely with the Marketing Wing to ensure promotion of print and electronic books
- Assist in establishing a comprehensive archival and retrieval system
- Work in collaboration with the private agencies and ministry in-house production team and to oversee flawless operational execution to meet the deadlines using computers for word processing, desktop publishing and email, dealing with phone and email queries, e.g. from writers and the public, and other administrative tasks like filing.
- Any other work assigned by Publications Division.

3. Selection Procedure: Editors will be selected after an interview/personal interaction before a Selection Committee, and after scrutiny of qualifications and experience related documents. The Committee, on the basis of qualification, work experience and suitability of the candidate will prepare a panel of candidates. The recommendation of the Selection Committee will be placed before the competent authority. The decision of the DPD shall be final and cannot be challenged.

4. Reporting and Monitoring Arrangements: The Editor will report to Senior Editors or above in the Publications Division. Monitoring will be done through monthly progress reports and reviews with senior officers of DPD.

5. Fees/ remuneration: The Editor will be paid a consolidated remuneration of Rs. 30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand only) per month lump-sum. No DA, HRA or any other relief or allowance will be admissible on the consolidated remuneration.

6. Tax deduction at Source: The Income Tax or any other tax liable to be deducted, as per the prevailing rules will be deducted at source before effecting the payment, for which the TDS Certificate(s) Service Tax, as applicable shall be payable extra, at the prevalent rates will be issued.

7. Other terms and conditions:
   a. The normal office is five days in a week and working hours is 9.30 a.m to 6.00 p.m; but the editor may be required to work beyond duty hours depending on work exigency.
   b. No facility for using internet/telephone at residence to editors will be provided by the office.
   c. The Editors hired will not be entitled to residential accommodation from the central government pool, telephone, transport and Staff car facility. However, all logistic support such as office space and equipment etc. will be provided to facilitate the work as per norms of DPD.
   d. Editors hired will not be permitted to take up any other assignment during the period of engagement with the Publications Division.
   e. The appointment of Editors is contractual and temporary (non-official) in nature against the specific assignment. This does not confer to the Editor hired any legal right for ad-hoc/regular/temporary/permanent employment with the Government.

8. Duration of the Project: The duration of project, at present, is up to 31st March, 2020 from the date of their joining of the organisation.

9. Termination of Contract: The Organisation may terminate the contract by giving fifteen days’ notice to the consultant without assigning any reason.
